LIMITED CONSENSUAL DUAL AGENCY AGREEMENT

Property Address _____

Buyer (s): _____ (hereafter called Buyer)

Seller(s): _____ (hereafter called Seller)

Buyer and Seller have previously been informed of and consented to the possibility of dual representation should a buyer client become interested in a seller client's property.

Buyer and Seller hereby acknowledge and agree that Coldwell Banker Reehl Properties, Inc., and listing and selling Sales Associates (hereafter referred to collectively as "Agent") are representing both Buyer and Seller and that Agent has been and is now the Agent of both Buyer and Seller with respect to this transaction. Buyer and Seller hereby consent to this dual representation.

Buyer, Seller and Agent understand that Limited Consensual Dual Agency can create conflicts of interest. Therefore, it is understood that Agent will not represent the interests of one party to the exclusion or detriment of the other party. Buyer and Seller hereby acknowledge that Agent's relationship with them is one of a limited fiduciary, and hereby indemnify and hold the Agent harmless against any claims, damages, and losses arising from this limited dual agency relationship.

The Buyer and Seller understand that because Agent represents both parties, Agent must endeavor to be impartial between Buyer and Seller. Except as expressly provided below, Agent in his/her capacity as Limited Consensual Dual Agent will disclose to both Buyer and Seller all facts and information which would not be confidential except for the Limited Consensual Dual Agency.

The Buyer agrees that Agent has not, and will not, without the express written permission of the Seller, disclose to Buyer the Seller's motivation for selling or that Seller is willing to sell the property for less than the listed price or any lower price unless offered in writing by the Seller. The Buyer agrees that Agent has not, and will not, without the express written permission of the Buyer, disclose to Seller the Buyer's motivation for buying or that Buyer is willing to pay more than any price offered in writing by the Buyer.

Both Buyer and Seller understand and agree that the Agent shall have the right to collect a commission or fee from Seller or from Buyer, or from both, provided that such dual collection of commissions or fees is disclosed to the parties.

Both Buyer and Seller are advised to seek competent tax and/or legal advice with regard to this transaction and to all documents executed in connection with this transaction.

This Limited Consensual Dual Agency Agreement does not substitute for any document previously signed by Buyer or Seller, except however, where this Limited Consensual Dual Agency Agreement contradicts or conflicts with any other documents, the language of this Limited Consensual Dual Agency Agreement shall control.

I have read and understand this Agreement.

*Alabama law requires you, the consumer, to be informed about the types of services which real estate licensees may perform. The purpose of this disclosure is to give you a summary of these services.

A SINGLE AGENT is a licensee who represents only one party in a sale. That is, a single agent represents his or her client. The client may be either the seller or the buyer. A single agent must be completely loyal and faithful to the client.

A SUBAGENT is another agent/licensee who also represents only one party in a sale. A subagent helps the agent represent the same client. The client may be either the seller or the buyer. A subagent must also be completely loyal and faithful to the client.

A LIMITED CONSENSUAL DUAL AGENT is a licensee for both the buyer and the seller. This may only be done with the written, informed consent of all parties. This type of agent must also be loyal and faithful to the client, except where the duties owed to the clients conflict with one another.

A TRANSACTION BROKER assists one or more parties, who are customers, in a sale. A transaction broker is not an agent and does not perform the same services as an agent.

*Alabama law imposes the following obligations on all real estate licensees to all parties, no matter their relationship:

1. To provide services honestly and in good faith;
2. To exercise reasonable care and skill;
3. To keep confidential any information gained in confidence, unless disclosure is required by law or duty to a client, the information becomes public knowledge, or disclosure is authorized in writing;
4. Present all written offers promptly to the seller;
5. Answer your questions completely and accurately.

Further, even if you are working with a licensee who is not your agent, there are many things the licensee may do to assist you. Some examples are:

1. Provide information about properties;
2. Show properties;
3. Assist in making a written offer;
4. Provide information on financing.

You should choose which type of service you want from a licensee, and sign a brokerage service agreement. If you do not sign an agreement, by law the licensee working with you is a transaction broker.

The licensee's broker is required by law to have on file an office policy describing the company's brokerage services. You should feel free to ask any questions you have.

The Alabama Real Estate Commission requires the real estate licensee to sign, date, and provide you a copy of this form. Your signature is not required by law or rule but would be appreciated.
